Churches Together

Plentycost Nothing Party -11th June 2-5pm, Ash Centre, Ash.

Come along for an afternoon of song, fun and games for families and friends.
 Cakes and refreshments provided too AND it's all free!
Help in serving or cake making would be much appreciated.

Local churches are hosting this free party for our community celebrating Pentecost which marks the birthday of the church. All are welcome!

Come and enjoy the sound of your local school choirs and others singing their hearts out. All ages from tinies to teens. Listen to fascinating stories, have a go at the crafts, get your face painted, work off the cake doing the games, relax with a cuppa... and most of all...enjoy yourselves!
 Feel free to bring a blanket and a picnic tea for the recreation ground outside.
Don't forget we are encouraging our young people to help with the games.

Holy Angels

Holy Angels AGM Sunday 18 June 12.15pm

This is our annual opportunity to take stock of where we are as a parish, including looking at our finances and other reports. As last year there will be some light food to stave off lunchtime hunger. This is a really good way to show your support for the parish as well as express your views. We also need the usual reports please.

Parish BBQ

After last year's successful BBQ (despite the weather!) we want to have another one this year. We are just in the process of tying up the date - probably mid July. Please can you think about how you can support this opportunity to gather together as a parish for some social fun!

Sponsored Swim

On 17th June, Rebecca and Samuel Newey will undertake to swim further than they ever have before. 1 adult + 1 child = 1 old measure and ½ a new – or in other words Samuel will swim ½ a kilometre, and Rebecca 1 mile. They are raising money for local charity Mustard Seed Autism Trust, who support families living with autism. Should you wish to sponsor them, they have set up a fundraising page at: <https://mydonate.bt.com/fundraisers/rebeccanewey1>

Holy Family

Brendan Maher would like to thank everyone for their constant prayers over the past eight years and kind communications at the death of his nephew Sean.

Parish Film Nights

The 2017 film night dates are as follows., Fri 7 Jul, Fri 22 Sep, Fri 17 Nov
Don't forget to put them in your diary. 7.30 - 7:45 pm. Please bring a suggested donation of £5 which will cover licensing, snacks and a generous provision of wine. All welcome

First Holy Communion

As we approach the end of this years program we are looking at forming a team of catechists. for next years program. Its not as daunting as it sounds as support and help from the clergy will be given. What you need is desire to help our young people move forward in their faith, which can often involve us in renewing our own faith. Especially if you have benefited from the program in the past or if you have a child coming up to First Holy Communion this might be a good way to help.

Please speak to Father Robin or Deacon John if you are interested.

Justice and Peace

On Wednesday 14 June Aidan Cantwell our Diocesan Justice and Peace office will come to speak at Holy Angels following the 9.30am mass. This is a good opportunity for people from both parishes who are interested in justice and peace issues as they arise in relation to our catholic faith to reflect on where are as parishes and think on how we can do more. Only by getting interested people together will we do anything.

General Election

A really important activity is to find out the voting intentions of the candidates standing in your constituency on the pro-life issues of both abortion and euthanasia which affect the most vulnerable in society. Check on your candidates at www.spuc.org.uk or call them on 020 7091 7091.

Fatima Anniversary

One of Our Lady's request repeated at all 6 of the apparitions was that the rosary be prayed daily for peace. Sister Lucia said that Jesus had revealed to her that He had given His mother, Our Lady a special role in bringing true peace to the world and that our prayers were an important part of this.

If you are at all concerned about the volatile state of our world, please consider responding to Our Lady's request, especially during this season of May.

<http://www.worldfatima-englandwales.org.uk/presentations.html> is an excellent website where you can learn more about the celebrations which will be taking place between May and October of this year. Fr Robin has been reading "Fatima for Today" by Fr. Andrew Apostoli, which is published by Ignatius press - which he highly recommends if you want know more about the apparitions and their relevance for today.

EWTN UK

The Eternal Word Television Network (EWTN) is the largest provider of Catholic media in the world today. As more and more of us are increasingly getting news and information more from modern media than from more traditional sources, the importance of this sort of Catholic ministry is growing. There are still leaflets about this ministry available at the back of Church. ewtn.co.uk

Manchester Bombing Victims

Bishop Richard Moth has asked for parishes in the Diocese of Arundel & Brighton to especially remember in prayer at Masses this weekend the victims and families of the Manchester Arena bombing.

Bishop Richard was shocked and horrified on hearing of the recent bombings in Manchester and joined with the local Bishop, Rt Rev John Arnold and Pope Francis in offering prayers and concern for all those affected. He said: "Please pray for the victims and their families at this time."

Bishop Richard is confident that the people of Manchester for whatever race or faith will stand together in unity in the face of this barbaric attack.
