Divine Mercy Sunday

This Sunday (2nd Sunday of Easter) is the Feast of Divine Mercy. It is based on the private revelations of St. Faustina Kowalska, which recommended a particular devotion to the Divine Mercy.

In 2000, Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina and, during the ceremony, he declared:

It is important then that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church will be called "Divine Mercy Sunday". In the various readings, the liturgy seems to indicate the path of mercy which, while re-establishing the relationship of each person with God, also creates new relations of fraternal solidarity among human beings.

The Church offers a plenary indulgence granted under the usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer for the intentions of Supreme Pontiff) to the faithful who, on the Second Sunday of Easter or Divine Mercy Sunday, in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honour of Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!).

March for Life - London 5th May 2018

The organisers of the annual March for Life, pro-life event have managed to move the event to central London, in order to coincide with the 50th Anniversary of the Abortion Act which came into effect on 27th April 1968.

Since then, 88,624,567 innocent lives have been lost due to the Act. It can often seem difficult to know what we can do to help change the culture in the country, but one of the best ways to start is to attend March for Life.

If you've never attended a March for Life before then here's what to expect: In the morning there are Masses & Christian services available which are taking place around London. 'LifeFest18' (the pro-life festival part) starts early at 9.30am in 'The Connaught Rooms' in Covent Garden. During the morning there will be workshops, pro-life stalls, merchandise, live music, a prayer room for prayer ministry and Confessions. A children's craft area with face-painting for the children (and adults), some inspiring testimonies and other surprises to be unveiled on the day.

The morning festival will finish at 1.00 which will then lead straight on to the BIG MARCH. We will have a joy lled 'march' or procession through the streets of Westminster proclaiming our central message of 'Life from conception – No exception' before we come together for a time of quiet reflection and our keynote speakers in Parliament Square. To be pro-life is to be pro-active about what we believe. Maybe you are not quite sure whether you are pro-life yet or have a few niggling questions . . . then come to March for Life as you will have your questions answered and your doubts put to flight. Maybe you have never done anything pro-life before . . . then come to March for Life as this is an easy way to start and once you get there you will find plenty of ideas of how to continue some pro-life activity.

Plenty of information is available on the website <https://www.marchforlife.co.uk> along with details of where to join a local coach.
