Justice & Peace group

Love in Action This week we begin reflecting on: Solidarity Among Peoples and the Promotion of Peace. "We are all responsible for one another...those close by, those far away". Take home sheets for further reflection are available after Mass from members of the Justice and Peace Team. On Wednesday 18th July (after Mass and coffee) a small group will begin writing cards of simple encouragement to Christians worldwide who are oppressed and persecuted for their faith. If you are able, please join us. Or contact Mike Harte if you are interested in doing this yourself at home. There is information and a display on the work of Pax Christi in the social room.

DOCAT Study Guide Several parishioners have expressed a wish to explore this useful, and 'doable', accompaniment to the Love in Action programme. Meetings will be from 10 am to 12 noon on certain Saturdays (to be agreed) and usually in the parish social room. All parishioners (inc. Holy Family) are invited to participate next Saturday 21 July. Please contact Mike Harte (in person or via the parish office).

Churches Together Teas today at Holy Angels at 3p.m. This is an opportunity each month for senior members of all parishes in the area to meet up with old and new friends. Transport can be arranged, so please do consider coming and enjoying the food and company.

Share the Journey. Inspired by Pope Francis' special concern for migrants and refugees, we are all invited to join the Share the Journey campaign and a) call on governments to agree on two global 'compacts', b) sign a petition to the Prime Minister - see social room display board. Additionally - in solidarity with people forced to flee – parishioners are invited to undertake a parish group walk (about 1.5 miles) on Sunday 22nd July after the 11A.M. Mass. We shall start and finish at the church.

The Vine: Last Thursday 15 clients and staff dedicated a return walk to Manor Park to this campaign.
