Sacramental Programs

First Holy Communion forms for the 2018-2019 program are now out. Please note that normally children need to be in year 3 or above, baptised, and regularly attending mass in the parishes with their parents to be considered for the program.

We will also be running Confirmation and RCIA courses for which application forms are also available. Forms for First Holy Communion can be given to clergy, Kathryn Besley or Louisa Mead while the office is closed for summer or can be put in the labelled box at the back of each church.

Justice & Peace group

Love in Action This week we continue reflecting on: Solidarity Among Peoples and the Promotion of Peace. "We are all responsible for one another...those close by, those far away". On Wednesday 18th July a small group wrote several cards of simple encouragement to Christians worldwide who are oppressed and persecuted for their faith. If you are able, please join us. Or contact Mike Harte if you are interested in doing this yourself at home. There is information and a display on the work of Pax Christi in the social room.

DOCAT Study Guide Several parishioners have now begun to explore this useful, and 'doable', accompaniment to the Love in Action programme. Meetings may be from 10 am to 12 noon on Saturdays, or another more convenient time to be agreed. People may attend which, and any number of sessions that suit them. All parishioners (inc. Holy Family) are invited to participate next Saturday 28 July. Please contact Mike Harte (mikeaharte@gmail.com)(Tel 01252 904103).

Kitchen Extension

It is expected that the kitchen extension work for the presbytery at Ash will begin towards the end of next week. Please take care if you have cause to be near the front of the presbytery during the work, and also be aware that Fr Robin and his family will be having to use the meeting room kitchen for their meals so this will affect the way we use the meeting room over the summer.

First Holy Communion Leaders

The first Holy Communion team need to recruit some additional help to run the course. This would involve a commitment to help out the leaders on a Saturday morning, once a month as well as help out with the Sunday Mass once a month between September and June. This would not entail being asked to lead a class and attendance would not be required every single month, but with more people stepping forward, the commitment can be more fairly spread. The leaders offer guidance to help with the classes and the leaders would welcome fresh faces able to offer other ideas and inspiration.

Please do think and pray if you are called to help in this way and do please speak to Fr Robin, Kathryn Besley,, Louisa Meade or Mariska Broughton for more information.
