

An invitation to celebrate
HOLY WEEK AND EASTER 2019
at Holy Angels, Ash
and
Holy Family, Heath End

The worship of Holy Week and Easter is an annual invitation to renew our Christian life. At the heart of our faith stands Jesus Christ crucified and risen. Centuries of Christian experience have proved that the liturgy of this week has power, through the Holy Spirit, to draw us to Him anew. The services of this week commemorate the various events of the last week in Jesus' earthly life. But taken together as a whole they form an extended celebration of the victory He won over death, because the cross and resurrection are inseparable. The services and ceremonies of Holy Week enable us more wholeheartedly to share the celebration and experience of Easter.

If you know of anyone from our congregations who is unable to attend Church over this period because of sickness or infirmity please let Fr Robin or Deacon John know and they will be happy to arrange communion at home around Easter.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

Fr Robin will be available to hear confessions during the church cleaning at Holy Angels on 13th April, and after the masses on Monday, Tuesday & Wednesday of Holy Week, and after the Office of Readings on Holy Saturday.

CHILDREN

Children are very welcome at all our services. They are part of our community and we encourage you to relax with them and let them join in in their own way. We don't expect them to behave like adults! In addition the Way of the Cross on Good Friday is particularly aimed at children. Older children may also find the Easter Vigil service different and interesting.

PALM SUNDAY (14th April)

“Hosanna to the Son of David.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.”

HA 5.30pm SATURDAY VIGIL MASS

HF 9.15am PROCESSION OF PALMS AND MASS

HA 11.00am PROCESSION OF PALMS AND MASS

On Palm Sunday the Church commemorates Christ's entry into Jerusalem to accomplish His saving work by dying and rising again. The liturgy of the day has two distinctive features, the PROCESSION and the reading of the PASSION GOSPEL.

MONDAY 15th April – WEDNESDAY 17th April

There will be mass every day to enable us to prepare for the Three Holy Days.

Monday HA 9.30am

Tuesday HF 9.30am

Wednesday HA 9.30am

THE THREE HOLY DAYS (TRIDUUM)

It is the turn of Holy Angels to host the Triduum. I would especially appeal to our parishioners from Holy Family to make the extra effort to attend these services. Having made the journey through Lent together as priest and people it is a loss not to be able to celebrate the heart of our catholic year together.

MAUNDY THURSDAY (18th April)

“Where charity and love are, there is God.”

HA 7.30pm MASS OF THE LORD’S SUPPER

followed by Watch at the Altar of Repose until Midnight.

Maundy Thursday marks a new beginning – the beginning of the end. From this point on, our Christian worship is a continuous unity through to Easter, the TRIDUUM or THREE DAYS.

At the end of the Mass the Blessed Sacrament is reserved for our communion on Good Friday. THE ALTAR OF REPOSE, where the Lord is placed, becomes our Gethsemane, where Jesus asks us to watch with Him and pray. Everyone present is urged to keep watch with Jesus for a time either at the end of the service or later in the evening.

GOOD FRIDAY (19th April)

“We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.”

HA 9.15am Walking the Way with Jesus

A children’s version of the Stations of the Cross

10.30am United Service of Witness at Ash Wharf.

We gather outside St Peter’s Church, Ash at 10.00 a.m. to walk together to the service. There is also a children’s workshop in St Peter’s Church Centre.

12.00noon Farnham walk of Witness begins from Hart car park.

HA 3.00 p.m. THE LITURGY OF THE LORD’S PASSION

THE LITURGY is the most important worship of Good Friday and should be our priority over attendance at other services. The theme of this day’s worship is the Crucified Lord.

Good Friday is a Day of Fasting and Abstinence. We are encouraged to enter into the solemn mood of the day by eating and drinking less and more simply – and by abstaining from meat. A good rule is one meal and two snacks during the day. The Fast should properly extend until the Easter Vigil.

HOLY SATURDAY (20th April)

“We were buried with Christ by baptism, that as Christ was raised from the dead, we too might walk in newness of life.”

HA 9.30am Office of Readings

HA 8.30pm PASCHAL VIGIL AND FIRST EUCHARIST OF EASTER

The Vigil is the Feast of all Feasts for Christians and the climax of the season of Lent and the commemorations of Holy Week. This celebration should be seen as the greatest observance of the Christian Year and the foretaste of the Everlasting Easter.

Everyone should be there! In word and ceremony the Church celebrates Christ's resurrection as the fulfilment of God's unending care for His people, and as the beginning and source of our baptised life in Christ.

Although not required the Church encourages us to keep Holy Saturday as another day of Fasting and Abstinence- until the Easter Vigil.

EASTER DAY (21st April)

“Alleluia. Christ is risen. He is risen indeed. Alleluia.”

HF 9.15am EASTER MASS

HA 11.00am EASTER MASS

Easter Day is the Sunday of Sundays, the first day of the new creation, which extends into a season of joyful reflection on the resurrection of the Lord. The miracle of the resurrection lies not only in the triumph of Jesus over death, but also in the experience of every Christian who has died to sin and has risen with Christ in baptism. Christ's victory at Easter is the beginning of our own victory and redemption in Him. In the Mass we meet the risen Lord, coming to share with us His own endless life. For that reason the Church expects all communicant Catholics to receive Communion at this feast.

Father Robin and Deacon John wish you all a very Happy Easter.
