Offertory

We are experimenting with reintroducing the offertory collection in the mass. For many of us the DONA machine will continue to be the preferable way to give (in which case let the basket pass you by!), but this enables us to acknowledge the collection as we symbolically lay it before the altar and for those who still use cash will make it easier to differentiate between main offertory collection and the second collections when we have them.

The DONA machine and second collection basket will remain at the door, and standing order forms are available there as well. We need at least £750 a week (in each parish) to meet our obligations - which is raised through your generous donations.

Thank you.

Please take away and reflect on the parish giving leaflet and talk from today, and think how you are able to support your p. arish:

- Financially
- With time and talent (ministries)
- By living your faith deeply

With no news from the Bishop yet we have deferred the 5 October meeting at Holy Family

Next Week CAFOD/Harvest Collection

Adult Confirmation, Baptism, & reception as Catholics

We are still early on in our adult faith exploration and sacramental initiation course for this year. Do speak to Fr Robin or approach the parish office if you want to discover more about the Catholic faith.

October Month of the Rosary

Pope Francis has called for October to be dedicated to praying for peace in Ukraine

We will be praying the rosary before mass at Holy Angels again celebrating the different cultures present in our parish with different languages.

If there is anyone who is willing to lead the Rosary before mass at Holy Family on Sundays in October please let Fr Robin know.

Fr Alexander Sherbrooke Talk, 4 October, 8pm at St Pius X Church Hall, GU1 2TS. Guildford is holding a street evangelisation event this Advent with a number of events taking place to prepare for it. The first event is a talk from Fr Alexander from St Patrick's, Soho Square - sign up here. Stars of the morning, so gloriously bright,

Filled with celestial splendence and light,
These that, where night never followeth day,
Raise the Trisagion ever and ay:

2 These are thy counsellors, these dost thou own,
Lord God of Sabaoth, nearest thy throne;
These are thy ministers, these dost thou send,
Help of the helpless ones, man to defend.

3 These keep the guard amid Salem's dear bowers;
Thrones, Principalities, Virtues, and Powers;
Where, with the Living Ones, mystical Four,
Cherubim, Seraphim bow and adore.

4 *'Who like the Lord?' thunders Michael the Chief;
Raphael, 'the Cure of God,' comforteth grief;
And, as at Nazareth, prophet of peace,
Gabriel, 'the light of God,' bringeth release.

5 Then, when the earth was first poised in mid space,
Then, when the planets first sped on their race,
Then, when were ended the six days' employ,
Then all the Sons of God shouted for joy.

6 Still let them succour us; still let them fight,
Lord of angelic hosts, battling for right;
Till, where their anthems they ceaselessly pour,
We with the angels may bow and adore.

So, I am going on a crazy cycling adventure all in aid of a good Catholic charity! In just a few weeks I will fly to Ho Chi Minh city, Vietnam and then cycle some 450km (a little short of 300 miles) passing through the Mekong Delta, crossing the border into Cambodia and finishing at Angkor Wat, Siem Reap. Why am I doing this? Aside from the fact that I am completely crazy and am excited about the adventure I am raising much needed funds for SHARE – a Catholic charity which works with vulnerable young people in Zambia.

How am I doing this? I am completely self-funding the entire trip so you can be 100% guaranteed that anything you are kind enough to donate will go directly to help vulnerable children in Zambia.

Can you help? Yes please. Pretty please! Even just £10 will provide one meal a day for one child for a whole school year. Me and SHARE will be hugely grateful for anything you are able to donate. Link to my JustGiving page: <https://www.justgiving.com/page/sue-haworth-edwards-1694534151268>
