Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity originated in 1908 with an "Octave of Christian Unity" started by Anglican priest Paul Wattson in Graymoor, New York, to promote unity between Anglicans and Catholics, taking place between the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter (Jan 18) and the Conversion of St. Paul (Jan 25). It developed from earlier prayer movements, received papal blessings, and became a joint effort between the Catholic Church and the World Council of Churches (WCC) from 1968, uniting Christians worldwide in prayer for full communion.

During this week Evening Prayer in front of the Blessed Sacrament will be said at Holy Angels at 5.30pm with a special intention for Christian Unity.

Palm Crosses

Pope Leo appointed Bishop Richard as Archbishop of Westminster on Thursday 19 December. The Archbishop-elect will become the 12th Archbishop of Westminster, succeeding Cardinal Vincent Nichols, who has served in the role since 2009. On hearing of his appointment, +Richard said:

"I am moved greatly by the trust that Pope Leo has placed in me, in appointing me to the Diocese of Westminster... Serving the Diocese of Arundel and Brighton has given me the wonderful opportunity of sharing the Church's mission with lay faithful and clergy, and I give thanks for the many blessings of these last ten years."

There will be a Mass of Thanksgiving for Bishop Richard's Ministry in Arundel & Brighton at Arundel Cathedral on Friday 30 January at 6.30pm. The Mass, which will be celebrated by Archbishop-Elect Richard, will be followed by a reception in the Baron's Hall at Arundel Castle, by kind permission of His Grace, the Duke of Norfolk. There is no need to register to attend the Mass, all are very welcome.

The Parish Office is normally open on Wednesday & Friday mornings after mass.
